

Latino Adult Education Services

LAES has developed a series of immigrant issue instructional modules entitled "Tierra de Oportunidad" for orientation to our complex society.

Student Survey "Access to Adult Learning Opportunities"

Date: _____

Student Name _____

Teacher Name _____

1. Have you ever thought or talked about the following issues with friends or family members or co-workers?

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
	No or Maybe once	Fairly often	A lot	Don't Need to
a. What you need to know to get different kinds of jobs
b. Whether it's important to take the time and trouble to do something to learn more about what you need to know
c. The advantages and disadvantages of different kinds of programs for helping you gain new skills
d. Ways of learning on your own-for example from books, television, or radio programs
e. Whether it would be a good idea for your employer to sponsor classes at work
f. What your own way of learning things is
g. What makes a good learner and what kinds of help makes it easiest for you to learn well

2. What do you know about where to go to get help in learning new skills

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
Do you know:	Not Very Confident	Somewhat Confident	Quite Confident	Have all the information
a. where there's a library that's easy to get to for you
b. where there are the kinds of books you need to learn the skills you want

c. all the places you can go to learn more English or how to read, write or do math better
d. where your local community college is and what kinds of help it can give you
e. Other places where you can go to get free job training (Programs sponsored by the local Private Industry Council)
f. where you can get advice about what you need to know to think about moving into a different kind of work

3. How important is for you to learn more about how to do the following?

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
How to:	Not Important	A little Important	Quite Important	Very Important
a. Who qualifies and how to apply for free employment training
b. How to decide what you will get out of a course or training program; and if it's worth it
c. How to overcome the difficulties in going to a program when they have other responsibilities
d. How to explore with supervisors or employers the possibility of sponsoring a program to learn new skills on the job
e. The kinds of financial help you can get to go to a community college or trade school
f. Estimating how much money it's worth over the course of your lifetime to learn new skills required for a different occupation

4. What would you like to learn about "Access to Adult Learning Opportunities" ?

I would like to learn:

Authors: Ed Kissam and Holda Dorsey

A project of the California Department of Education, Youth, Adult and Alternative Educational Services Division, funded by contract #4213 of the Federal P.L. 100-297, Section 353 with California State University Institute and Hacienda LaPuente USD. However, the content does not necessarily reflect the position of that unit or of the U.S. Office of Education. 1997